Sunday Dinghy Sailing Starting

We are excited for another fun season of Sunday Dinghy Sailing. Unfortunately, we had to cancel on 6/19 due to the lake conditions. We are hoping for better conditions next Sunday. As a reminder, the skippers meetings are Sundays at 1:00 pm on the beach. We look forward to seeing you out on the water!

Ever wonder how Doug gets the lawn mowed with all those picnic tables?

...sorta like our own Stonehenge...

From the Dockmaster, Linda Rohlfing

Our club is now in full swing as the summer starts. Here are few points to remember:

Parking: I ask everyone to be considerate about parking your cars so as not to block sailboats maneuvering to and from the beach or boat launch.

Trailer Storage: Unfortunately, the off site trailer storage lot is not yet available due to construction by the town. As a result, our lawn may be quite congested with bats, trailers and cars!

Our dock wall is expected to have full occupancy. Please make sure your boat is secured to the dock properly so it will not impinge upon your neighbors boat or break free during bad weather.

Drysail lawn care: Please maintain the lawn around your drysail area at least bimonthly. The Lawn mower is available in the patrol shed. Please use the red gas tank with non-ethanol gas to refill the lawn mower. If you notice the gas is getting low, please let a board member know so we get it refilled.

Sheds: please be sure that your boat and beach gear are stored in your shed slot and does not impinge upon another member's storage slot.

As the season progresses please remember to contact me directly with any boat storage questions or concerns. I welcome you to contact me via email (dockmaster@sailpmc.org / linda.rohlfing19@gmail.com) or call / text 585-766-9073 to leave me a message.

Maintenance & Small Repairs,

Rich Seyfried

It all started with an eMail with attached photos from Mark Hager, showing awesome Maple Cabinets which would complement our existing cabinets. These would fill in the West wall in the PMI kitchen area, and for zero cost. Mark only needed to pick them up, so he hooked up his trailer and ventured to down state to secure the cabinets. Due to scheduling and availability, Mark will need to make two trips to secure all the cabinets for the remodel.

Friday morning Ben Minier and I started cleaning out the west wall, took a bunch of measurements and moved on to configure the cabinets for installation. These things are built, 3/4 inch thick carcasses, yes a bit heavy. In the afternoon Jim Koudelka and Jim May arrived to help with the upper cabinets and to assist in the construction of a custom desk with acquired cabinet parts for under the window. Gentlemen, thanks for the help. We still have to rework the doors on the supply cabinet and install two base cabinets when they become available. Check them out when you stop down to the club.

Chicken Francese is an Italian-American dish with origins in Rochester, New York. The dish features chicken cutlets coated in a light batter of flour and egg and cooked in an aromatic white wine-butter sauce.

Vitello Francese is an Italian-American dish that was served in New York City after World War II.. When the dish made its way to Rochester, James Cianciola, who was also known as Chef Vincenzo, served Veal French at the Brown Derby, a restaurant on Monroe Avenue in Brighton. After anti-veal picketers urged a boycott of the restaurant in the 1970s, Cianciola put Chicken French on the menu. It was a popular offering. Other Rochester restaurants followed suit, and the dish is now ubiquitous on Rochester restaurant menus.

Quarter Master, Charlotte Buehler

Thank you for your patience while I was traveling during April and May!

I am back in town and had a chance to check on supplies and purchased what was needed for general supplies. Everything seems to be in order.

Large trash bags are now located in the ladies restroom storage closet AND in the kitchen. Thanks for the suggestion!

I hope this makes for easier access especially during events.

Please be mindful about the use of plastic and the environment.

It is helpful if you make sure the bags are filled to capacity before placing them in the large trash receptacle.

When event planners would like help purchasing supplies, please let me know. I just need a few days "heads up" about specifics about what and the quantity you need.

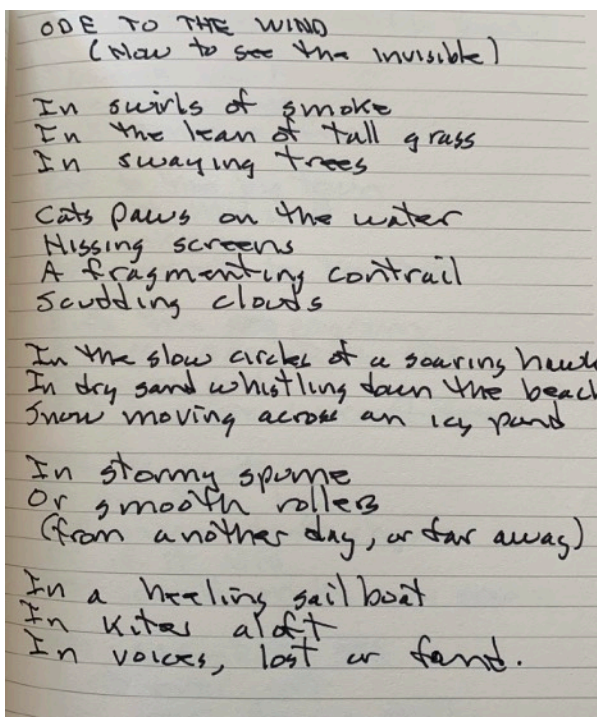

Supply closet and kitchen cabinets will be checked regularly to insure that routine supplies are available. If you happen to notice there is a need, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Happy sailing.....

Baby Gosling

On Friday night, while playing hide and seek we saw a baby goose that wasn't a chick any more, but it still had the brownish yellow fluff, sitting by the big willows. Its parents were nearby, but not very close, just sticking around. We accidentally startled it, causing it to get up and walk away, but it couldn't. Its leg looked broken because its was twisted odd.

We went to tell our parents, and they came to check it out. We were told to catch it and see what might be wrong. We had no good sized box, so me and Brea (It's always us, the boys are too lazy,) were sent on a mission to search the storage lockers for a good box/bin. I found a plastic bin buried in some stuff. It all ended up being a waste of time, because the adults decided to use a towel to hold him.

My dad went out with Brea to catch it in the towel, and dad caught it because the poor thing couldn't run. Jessica, (Brea's mom) and Alan, (my dad) flipped him over, and saw that the gosling didn't have a broken leg, it had a fishing lure pinning his foot to his body.

Kelsey went searching for pliers, so we could cut the hooks off. It was quite a long process, but eventually we got it all off. When we freed him, he ran straight to the channel. A week later, we came back to the beach, and on the opposite side of the boat launch from where we freed the baby goose was a bunch of goslings. I spotted a baby goose hopping over to the big group of other babies, but I noticed that he wasn't hopping, he was limping slightly. I pointed him out to Brea, and we were so happy, he had found his family! They hadn't left him!
