You never know what will wash up on PMI shores - photos by Linda Rohlfing

Interim Vice-Commodore, Rod Proulx

I hope everyone enjoyed our beautiful fall as we transition into the holiday season...and we trade our lawn rakes for driveway shovels.

Thanks to all who participated in the Fall Cleanup! I've been to the club since our cleanup, and mother nature is busily preparing more work for our Spring Cleanup day!

We have been making several changes to the club entrance area this year related to the construction of the new house, and following is a status of the club activities since the last Mainsheet.

Electrical service relocation and distribution upgrades related to the new house construction are complete. The new electrical entrance passed fire underwriter inspection, and RG&E transferred the electrical connection from the original to new equipment. Finishing touches were made to the excavated area surrounding the new electrical pedestal with topsoil and grass seed.

Utility winterization was completed with assistance from Rich Seyfried. The water supply and waste lines/sumps were purged and/or filled with anti-freeze, and propane supply shut off at the tanks. Bathroom door locks were changed to prevent accidental usage.

The original fence and gate was replaced November 18th with a new fence located at the bottom of the hill, adjacent to the bathroom building. The fence is in place; gate installation is planned for December. The gate will be secured in the same fashion as the original, using the same combination lock issued earlier this year. A “man”-gate, located adjacent to the small boat shed, is included in the new fence configuration. A new combination lock has been installed to secure the opening. Please contact Dockmaster Lynn Malboeuf if you need access.

Thank you for your support,

Social Events, Darlene Grey

Thank you to all our PMI hosts for putting together a fantastic 2025 Events season. We had all kinds of weather from a spaghetti dinner where we all wore winter coats, “stake” and corn roast in blazing sun and heat to ice cream socials with sand castles contests, to our beautiful and delicious PMI banquet. It was truly fun to get together, seeing everyone and socializing .

Don't forget after our PMI Annual meeting January 24th at 11a.m. We are having a POT LUCK, so bring your favorite dish to pass and don't forget to bring your snow shoes, skis and sleds to enjoy the park grounds. Warm regards to all,
Darlene Grey, Social Events Chairperson 720-878-3741

Looking Ahead: 2026 Membership

While we dream of a White Christmas , it's also a good time to start thinking ahead.

Information about PMI Membership will be coming your way, and we're encouraging everyone to keep your eye out for updates.

Getting your application in early not only affords you a discount, it also helps us to plan events, organize committees and ready the club for the upcoming season. And it's another way to support the club that we all love and enjoy.

As you sip on something by a warm cozy fire, look for your membership information and decide to send it in early as a gift to yourself and the club.

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Dock Master, Lynn Malboeuf

Dockmaster Greetings!

And a note from Catamaran owner, Pete Stubler:

I delayed putting my mast down as long as I could. But, the sailing season is over my boat is secured. I notice there are several masts still up and some boats are not tied down. Remember that winter winds are stronger than those in summer. This has resulted in boats being flipped or moved off their trailer. You don't want your boat to be damaged, or worse, cause damage to a neighbors boat. So make sure that your boat is tucked in for winter.

Thanks, Pete
